DESCRIPTION

The contemporary and enveloping lines, combined with the use of eco-friendly materials, make the Aurora seating collection the perfect complement for furnishing multitasking spaces and smart offices. The choice of sustainable materials not only respects the environment but also adds a touch of modernity and ecological awareness to any space. The upholstered seats provide superior comfort, making this collection ideal for work sessions or meetings. The multiple available bases, including fixed options, swivel bases with wheels, or feet, allow these chairs to be easily adapted to different operational needs, ensuring both stability and flexibility.
