

DESCRIPTION

With Blaze, the range of ergonomic seating expands, achieving a solution that perfectly adapts to the new trends in both public and private office spaces, as well as home offices. The goal of the project was to create a chair with long-lasting comfort, increasingly in demand due to extended work sessions, making it suitable for both individual workstations and long meetings. The chair stands out for its refined aesthetic design, the ease of use of its components, and the reliability of the materials used.
