DESCRIPTION

The Montevideo armchair family stands out for its classic design reinterpreted with a modern touch, featuring soft and enveloping shapes that provide a high level of comfort. Ideal for refined executive spaces, these chairs combine style and ergonomics, becoming a distinctive and functional furnishing element. The backrest, enriched with handcrafted stitching, adds a touch of elegance and attention to detail, making each chair an example of excellence and aesthetic refinement. The collection is available in three versions to suit different needs: a high-back version for executive use, a mid-back version for less formal settings, and a sled-base version, ideal for visitors and waiting areas. Perfect for those who wish to combine comfort and style without compromise, the Montevideo family represents an exclusive choice for prestigious professional environments.
