DESCRIPTION

The Melbourne family expands with a new model featuring a fully smooth plastic backrest, without perforations, enhancing its essential and contemporary design. This model maintains the simple and appealing style that defines the collection while offering a wide range of customization options. Among the new features are trendy new colors and a tone-on-tone frame matching the shell, creating a harmonious and modern visual effect. The option to upholster the seat with fabrics or faux leather further expands the configuration possibilities, making the chair even more versatile. Perfect for modern and dynamic conference rooms, this chair is also ideal for other multipurpose settings, seamlessly combining style and functionality to meet various needs. The combination of a contemporary design, customization options, and practicality makes it an ideal choice for professional spaces that require versatile and distinctive furnishings.
